DETAILED ACTION

Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1, 3-20 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: Independent claims 1, 19 and 20 recite a series of steps to wirelessly provide troubleshooting instructions to a hand held unit as service is done on a locomotive, which is a useful and tangible result. There is a specific graphical hyperlink recited. The prior art cannot be properly combined to teach the full combination of steps as recited. Claims 3-18 are dependent upon claim 1.

Schreitmueller et al. shows an insurance database, which a parts database with a graphical hyperlink embedded on visual representations of parts for insurance purposes. It has no troubleshooting instructions. Sato et al.(foreign reference) teaches a field repair crew with a hand held unit for instructions. There would be no motivation to modify the insurance database of Schreitmueller to incorporate troubleshooting instructions. It would be hindsighted and non-obviously difficult because of the embedded hyperlinks, which are related to component parts, not inter-working procedures.

There is a Communications News article cited of interest.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
